How to take measurements?

In order for the blinds and awnings to completely fit and for you to have the opportunity to use all of their functionalities, it is a must to take the right measurements. When in doubt how to measure, we recommend to always contact a specialist who will not only measure correctly but will also direct you to the most suitable product for your room and will give you additional information. For more details see the following link: https://www.kamax.bg/useful/advisor